ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP

A. ELIGIBILITY: Membership shall be open to registered Republican Women.

B. TYPES OF MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Primary Member (Member in Good Standing)

A member in good standing is one whose current dues are paid to one local club in good standing. A local club in good standing is one whose current per capita dues and service charge are paid to the NFRW. ( refer to CFRW Bylaws ARTICLE IV - MEMBERSHIP B. Types of Membership Section 1. Member in Good Standing)

- a. Shall have the right to vote, make motions and nominations after being a primary member of a local club for sixty (60) days. (refer to CFRW Bylaws ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP B. Types of Membership Section 1. Member in Good Standing)

Section 2. Associate Membership

a. The Club may only grant associate membership to women who are primary members of another Federated club. Such membership shall not be granted the privilege of making motions, nominations, voting or hold office. ( Refer to CFRW Bylaws ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP, B. Section 2a. Associate Membership)

b. Associate members shall not be eligible to serve as delegates to NFRW or CFRW meetings or conventions or be counted in establishing a quorum. (Refer to CFRW Bylaws ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP, B. Section 2 a. Associate Membership).

c. Republican men may be eligible for associate membership in a club upon payment of the required annual dues for associate members. Such members may attend meetings, but shall not make motions, have a voice or vote, be on a committee, hold office, or be counted for the purpose of determining the number of delegates to national or state conventions, nor be used to establish a quorum. They shall be entitled to membership in local clubs only, and they do not become a member of NFRW or CFRW. (Refer to CFRW Bylaws ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP, B. Section 2b. Associate Membership)

Section 3. Other Memberships

- a. Local club special membership categories shall be considered primary members and must be included in Per Capita Reports. (refer to CFRW Bylaws ARTICLE IV – MEMBERSHIP, B. Section 3 Associate Membership)

ARTICLE V – ETHICS

Section 1. Endorsement Policy (refer to CFRW Policy section for additional information)

- a. The Club President and Campaign Activities Chair shall not publicly endorse any candidate for public office in any primary, runoff, special or non-partisan race where two or more known Republicans are in the race. If any of the aforementioned desire to do so, she must resign her position. An officer of the organization who is a candidate or whose spouse or family members is a candidate shall be exempt from this rule; however, they may not do so in the name of the organization or by utilizing the logo or stationery of the NFRW, CFRW, or the local club. (revision required by NFRW 2020.01.01)
- b. The local club name shall not be used by a primary member or an associate member in supporting a candidate during any campaign when there are two or more known Republicans in the same race. No endorsement or evidence of support by any members shall be issued using the NFRW affiliation, logo, or stationery without the approval of NFRW. (revision required by NFRW 2020.01.01)
- c. NFRW Bylaws provide for removal of membership of any member, state federation, or local club that advocates a split party ticket or supports a candidate who is running on an opposition ticket. (revision required by NFRW 2020.01.01)
- d. This prohibition applies to the Club President and Campaign Activities Chair – and the club as an entity. The rest of the membership is free to endorse the Republican candidate of her choice, just not in the name of the club.(Revision required by NFRW 2020.01.01)
- e. Examples of endorsements or public displays of support include block walking, phone banking, handing out push cards, sending emails, signs in yards, donating funds, attending fundraisers, and social media posts. (revision required by NFRW 2020.01.01)
- f. In the case of contested Republican races, clubs may distribute information on all the candidates – such as events or fundraisers – if they are fair and distribute equally for all. The use of a disclaimer (i.e., “This is being emailed for informational purposes only and does not represent an endorsement by this club.”) can help prevent anyone from interpreting such communications as endorsements. (revision required by NFRW 2020.01.01)

- g. This policy only applies when there are two or more known Republicans in the same race. For any other race there is no endorsement prohibition. (revision required by NFRW 2020.01.01)
- h. In non-partisan races; clubs and members will utilize whatever voter data is available in the county/state to verify registration, voter records, etc., to ascertain the party with which a candidate normally identifies. (revision required by NFRW 2020.01.01)
- i. Candidate endorsement limitations shall not preclude any member from serving or fulfilling their duties as delegates to the National Republican Convention, the California Republican Party, or County Central Committee. Their State or Club title and State or Club name may not be used with any endorsement. (revision required by NFRW 2020.01.01)

Section 2. Any person, not registered to vote in the Republican Party, shall neither be invited to speak nor be permitted to speak at any meeting of the CFRW, a Regional Meeting, or a local club meeting. People not yet eligible to vote may speak if the topic has been approved by the CFRW or local club's Executive Committee.

Section 3. It shall be considered a breach of ethics for a member to speak disparagingly in public of any Republican or candidate.

Section 4. It shall be a breach of ethics to publicly promote a candidate of another party in speech, in print or electronic communication in a partisan or non-partisan election and may be just cause for a member's suspension or dismissal.

Section 5. The local club name shall not be used by a member or an associate member when using any personal and/or electronic communications.

Section 6. Other Organizations: The Club shall not affiliate with any political organization which is not officially recognized as working in concert with the National Federation of Republican Women or the California Federation of Republican Women and The Republican National Committee.

Section 7. Membership Data: All member information is the sole property of the NFRW and is strictly for the benefit of the NFRW and shall not be sold or furnished for any other purpose.
